THIS MONTH'S ADOPTEE'S

EOD Sailors
80 Troops (7 Female)

Our first "adoption", two years ago today, was a group of EOD Sailors (Explosive Ordnance Disposal - technicians tasked to safely dispose of explosive materials.) Boxes went out and "thank you's" were returned. Well, two years later "Molly's Adopt a Sailor" wants to celebrate its second birthday by going back to that same unit!

We located one of their "thank you" emails and contact was made. We asked if they were interested in being adopted again since they started this endeavor with us. This was their reply:

So folks for our July group we are headed back "home" to our original adoptees!

May 2010 Adoptees ~ Our Marines in Afghanistan

"Dear Navy moms:

I just wanted to send you an email and let you know that a lot of the Marines and Sailors are getting a hold of your nice pillow cases. I still have some left here in the Chaplains office but I give them out when people walk-in. Thank you again for all your support.

Respectfully
E-5 C, US NAVY
1st Marine Logistics Group
Group Chaplains Office"

"Shirley,
We just received your thoughtful cards. I distributed them to fellow flight docs and corpsmen stationed here at the Flight Line Aid Station on Camp Bastion. Thank you for supporting our armed forces!
V/R,
LT"

From our Marines:

"Hey, Sue, I wanted to let you know that we have begun getting boxes in the mail. Means a lot to everyone and really helps break things up and pass the time. Gives everyone something to look forward to also. I have been handing the boxes out pretty much randomly. So far it has been a hit. Thank you so much!"

"Dear Mrs. L,

On behalf of the men and women of HMH-466, I want to thank you for the many care packages that you and your group of volunteers have delivered to our Marines in Afghanistan. Though mailed to MSgt Rich XXXXX, the meaning and intent was clear and the contents were shared by all. The pillow cases were very unique and in demand. I believe I will frame my pillow. Gift donations such as yours help to build camaraderie and boost morale among the Marines of my unit, which is a critical component in our ability to accomplish our mission. Receiving such gifts reminds our Marines that their sacrifice, hard work and dedication are not forgotten. You have my sincere gratitude for your patriotism and your support of my Marines and their morale. Please convey my gratitude to all who participated in the care package and pillow making drive. We look forward to returning home to San Diego in XXXX. Semper Fidelis
